CLIVE STREET, CALCUTTA.

LL3312

CALCUTTA

Postcard No, 4005

"OILETTE" Series

"WIDE-WIDE-WORLD" Series

Raphael Tuck & Sons' ART PUBLISHERS TO THEIR MAJESTIES THE KING & QUEEN.

Printed in England

Copyright London

By Appointment

TUCK'S POST CA

CARTE POSTALE

FOR ADDRESS

Clive Street, Calcutta. This perpetuates the name of Clive who retook Calcutta after it had been captured by the Nabob of Bengal in June, 1756. Six months after the tragic episode of the "Black Hole." Clive came with ships under Admiral Watson, and on the 2nd January, 1757, Calcutta was retaken and from this time forward enjoyed uninterrupted prosperity.

Calcutta 2/25/26

Dear Friend

If any mail on hand please forward % E. Hospes No. 1 Bund Kobe Japan After that please hold till I write from Japan

Yours with many thanks and best wishes

Geo. Aerth

Miss S. G. Skidmore

515 Chauncey St

Brooklyn N.Y.

U. S. A.

C1PAN 9